

If you're looking for an unspoiled destination, it's Fiji!

Bula Vinaka (a warm hello in Fijian),

I just had the time of my life in the beautiful islands of Fiji! It was paradise—untouched beaches, world-class sport fishing, and clear turquoise water for snorkeling or scuba diving. And, the friendliest people on the planet. Imagine staying in a bure (beach bungalow) hidden among swaying palms and tropical gardens looking out onto a white sand beach. It's Hawaii 75 years ago.

The food was amazing. We enjoyed the best in authentic Fijian cuisine, complemented with a variety of culinary delights, including exotic seafood dishes and fabulous wood oven pizza on the island of Malolo. Fiji has everything you need for a perfect vacation—scuba diving, snorkeling, sport fishing, hiking, windsurfing, sailing, and cultural exploration. Or, just relaxing in a hammock on one of the crystal sand beaches. And, there are no crowds!

If you would like to learn more about this magnificent vacation in paradise, please call or email me for more details.
